The Personnel Board went into closed session at 7:02pm.

The Personnel Board returned to open session at 7:04pm.

The Personnel Board discussed the potential entry level and promotional police tests.

The promotional tests will be second in the process, according to the chairman. The entry level testing will be the first to do and could possibly be started this September. Stanard & Associates will do the beginning of the testing. The chairman hoped that will be done before the end of the year. Requirements need to be correct and updated, if need be.

The firefighters list will be posted on September 1, 2016 and will be good for two years from that date. Stanard & Associates will be acquiring the info needed for the entry level for police officer candidates.

Attorney Katherine Ellis arrived at 7:12pm.

The discussion continued with the update of the policy and the chairman to check if anything was to be added or changed. With a new Police Chief, there might be updates according to Chairman Lewis. It was reminded that it took a very long time to get the last policy updated.

Motion was made by Member Regep and seconded by Member Gholeh to adjourn. By voice vote, the MOTION CARRIED.

The meeting adjourned at 7:12pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Catherine Siciliano
